Hello! My name is Sarah Wong and I'm 13 years old. I have a fringe and I wear glasses. I am an only child.

I like to post videos about simple science experiments online. I usually post one video every week. I have 10,000 subscribers on my channel. Most of them think I'm smart. Some of them think I'm talkative because I talk a lot in my videos.

My other hobby is windsurfing. At the weekend, I usually go windsurfing at Cheung Chau. When I'm on the sea, I feel happy and free. I can jump really high off the waves.

My eldest sister Abby always asks me to do chores, like tidying and washing the dishes. She acts like my parent. She's also independent, and never plays games with me.

My younger brother Matthew is the baby of the family. My parents let him do anything he wants! Matthew loves laughing and joking around. We play board games together, but he doesn't like it when he loses!

As the middle child, it's hard to get attention. I play my guitar when I feel left out. My parents tell me to get proper lessons, but I think it's more fun to make up my own songs.

Hello! I'm Samuel. I'm 13. I'm studying at Elton School. My school is in this historic building. Let's go inside!

As you can see, most students in the UK wear school uniforms. Now I'm walking to the school hall. That's where we have morning assemblies.

Here we're at my favourite place – the tuck shop. You must try the classic English biscuits. They're really tasty!

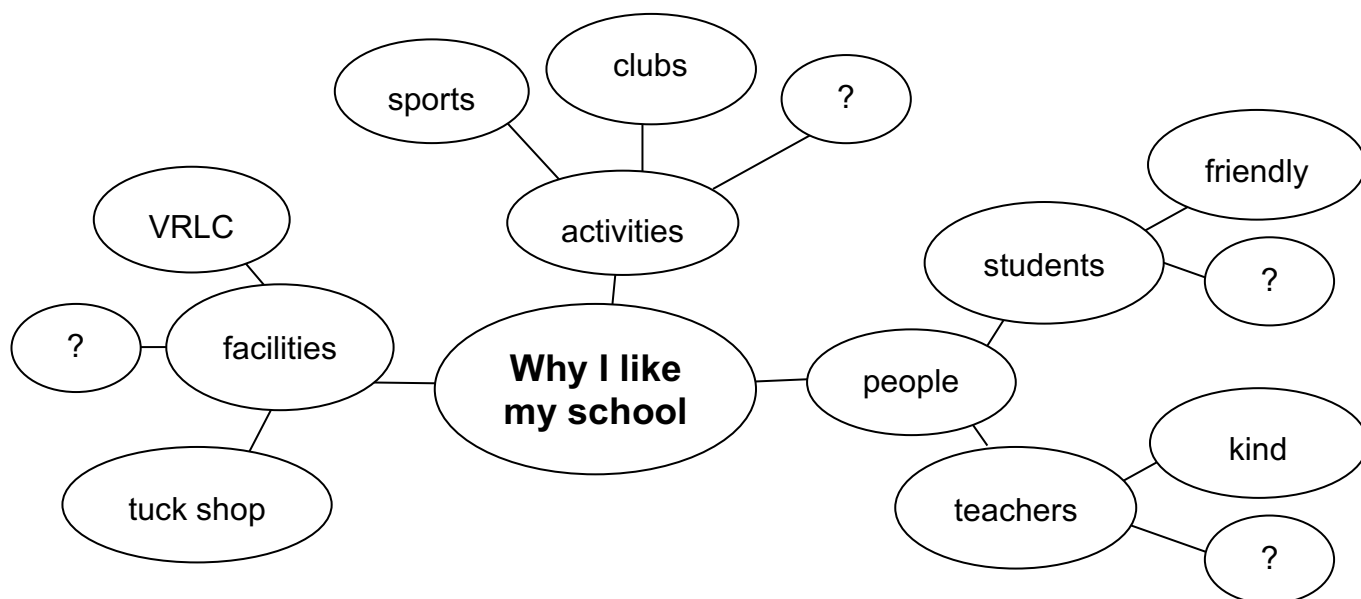

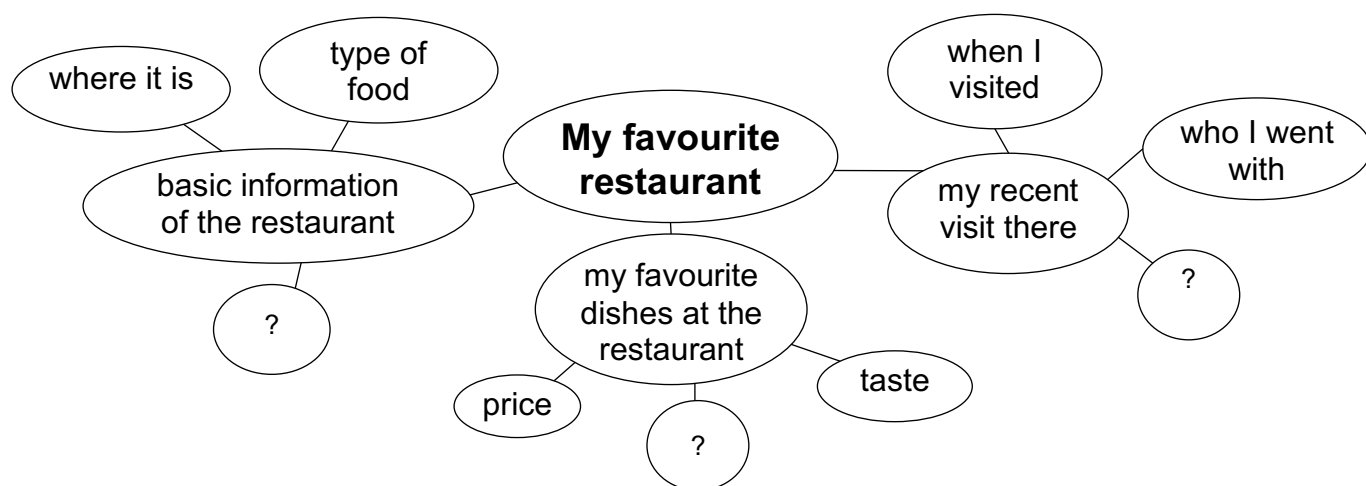

Now we're at the music room. I often come here after school. Why do I come here after school? Well, I'm in the percussion team. We practise regularly.

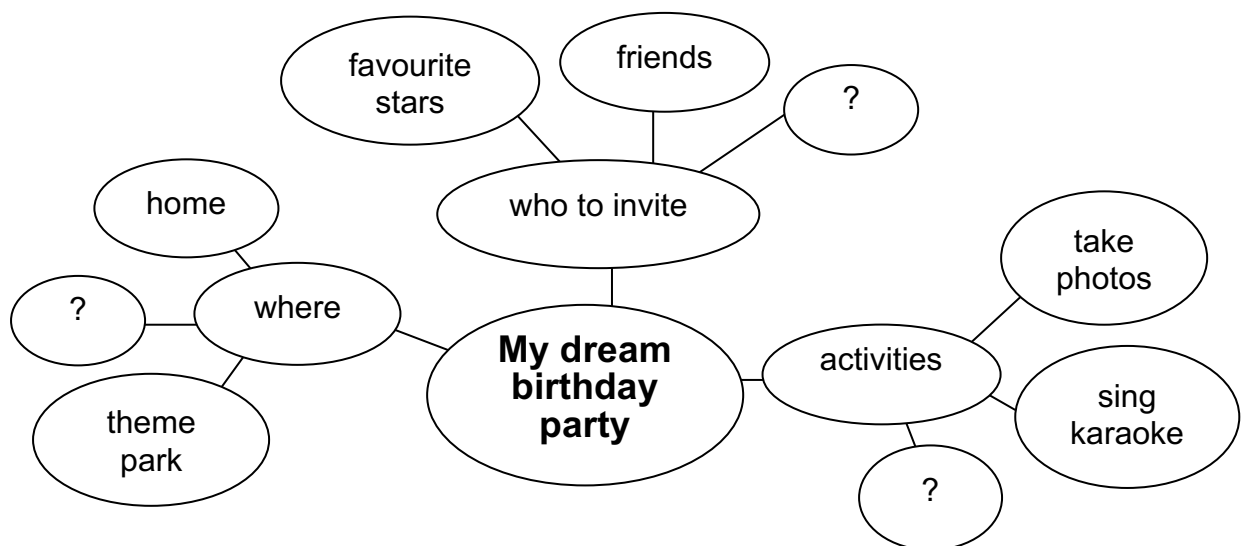

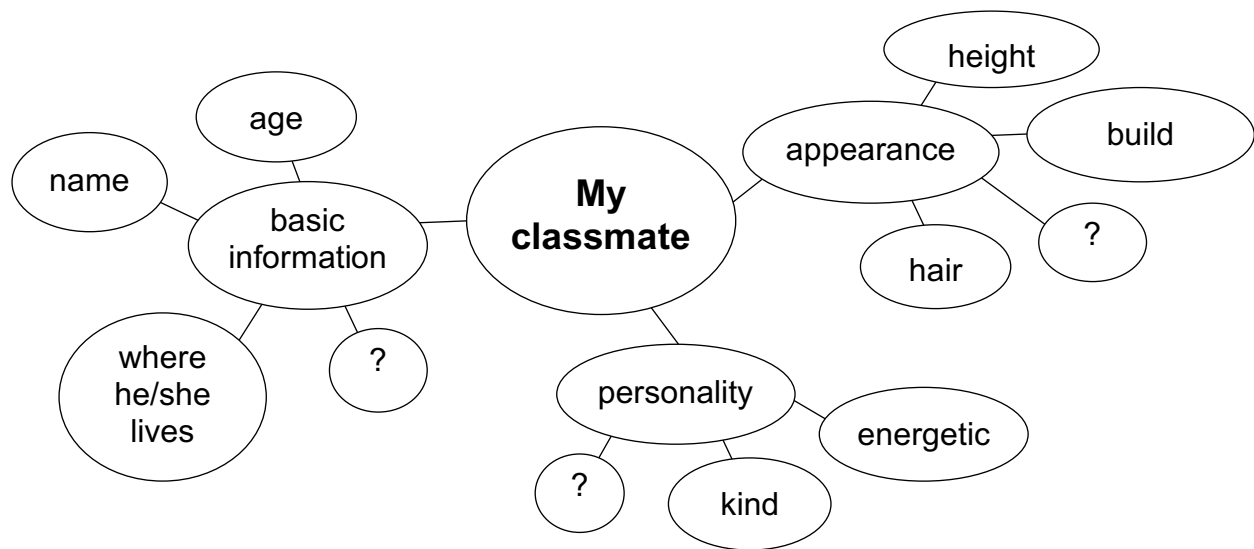

Thank you for watching! I hope you like this video. See you!

I'm crazy about Japanese pancakes, so I really wanted to try Gram Cafe and Pancakes. Yesterday, I finally went there with Mum!

The menu had a lot of sweet and savoury options. I had no idea what to order! Luckily, their waiter was helpful. He recommended the signature dish — Premium Pancake. The thick and fluffy pancakes looked just like little clouds!

Now, how to eat it? First, I spread butter on each pancake. Then, I added maple syrup over them. Next, I cut them into small pieces. Finally, I dipped each piece in fresh cream. Delicious!
